

FULL STEAM AHEAD: John Miller, chairman of Greenock and District Model Railway Club, with Jonathan Macdonald, 10, who helped with the running of the show.

CLUB ON RIGHT LINES FOR TRAIN SPOTTERS

TRAIN enthusiasts young and old were on the right track as Greenock and District Model Railway Club held its annual show.

A series of display sets were on view at Greenock town hall over both Saturday and Sunday from the Greenock club plus other branches across Scotland.

Bill Hamilton, of Greenock and District Model Railway Club, said: "It was very well attended. The younger ones always like looking at the wee trains — and so do their dads."

MODEL SPECTATOR: A visitor enjoys one of the railway displays.

ON TRACK: Enthusiasts flocked to the Greenock town hall show over the weekend.
